Oxford Debate Team Due Mon.

"In the opinion of this house the British have mishandled the Middle East" will be the topic for the Oxford Debate to be held Monday, Oct. 12, according to Dr. Lawrence Mouat, director of forensics.

The debate is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Music auditorium with Dr. James C. De Voss as chairman.

San Jose debaters, Bill Johnson and Terry Arnold, will take the affirmative while the Oxford team of Patrick Barnabas, Burke Mayhew and John Peters will argue the negative.

The Oxford Debate team was recommended by the Institute of International Education in New York. The Lecture committee under President John T. Wahlquist, scheduled the debate.

Faculty Group Hears Prexy

Dr. John T. Wahlquist, college president, addressed yesterday's meeting of the faculty council to discuss specifically the problems of sabbatical leave, professional ethics, and dismissals, according to Dr. George A. Muench, chairman of the council.

Dr. Muench stated that the council is elected by the faculty to cooperate with the administration in trying to solve problems of concern to the college.

"Any problem of concern to any faculty member is of concern to the council," he said. He urged all faculty members to use the council freely.

The Weather

After much concentrated study of our venerable news editor's bumpy noggin, our esteemed phrenologist, weatherman in his spare time, Foggy McCloud announces that the innumerable small bumps, the result of editor's rages past and present, indicate a continuance of the present balmy weather for a day or so.

On the other hand, he says, the large lump located directly on top of the shoulders indicates the return of foggy and much cooler weather after Tuesday. Sunday's high was 57, the hottest Oct. 4 since 1933. In case the reader hasn't noticed, yesterday was hot, too! Westerly winds of 10-20 mph should help to cool Foggy's bumps Tuesday, however.

Class Councils Announce Plans for October Dances

Senior Class

The first after-game dance of the year will be given by the Senior class Saturday night following the Arizona State-SJS game. Final plans completed in the Senior council meeting yesterday afternoon set the Women's gym as the place of the dance.

Dancing will be to records and will last until 1 a.m. The price will be 25 cents per person.

The council also authorized its representatives to the Student Council to bring before the council a proposal to amend the constitution to allow the Senior class to elect one president during the school year. The constitution now calls for each class to hold two elections for officers each year.

Dr. Vernon Ouellette, class adviser, said he favors the one president idea since the election of a new president in the middle of the year, would place an inexperienced person in authority just before the start of senior activities.

Junior Class

The Junior class council yesterday discussed arrangements for an after-game dance the night of the North Texas State-San Jose State football game here Oct. 31. Committees were selected to handle arrangements for the dance. The meeting was in Room 127.

Treasurer Emily Lippolis reported that the Junior class received $250 from the Student Council, but that it owed $141.50.

Senior President

BERNICE RAPLEY

ported that the Junior class received $250 from the Student Council, but that it owed $141.50.

Sophomore Class

The "Stardusters," a 16 to 18-piece band from Stanford, and a Halloween theme will be featured at the first of the Fresh-Soph mixers, which sees the sophomores playing host to the "friendless and oh-so-green" freshmen.

The dance will be held Oct. 23, from 8 to 12 p.m. in the Women's gym. Don Abinante, sophomore class member, is in charge.

The affair is traditionally a contest between the two classes. Judging this year will be on attendance, games, and entertainment. Last year's freshmen were the winners at that dance.

Freshman Class

Two guest speakers were present at the meeting of the Freshman council held yesterday in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Barbara Roach of the Sparta Camp committee invited all freshman council members to attend the meeting at Asilomar this weekend. Don Abinante, sophomore council representative, spoke to the freshmen about the coming Fresh-Sophomore mixer, urging them to attend.

Orville Butts was chosen temporary chairman of the group, assisted by Saralee Smith, acting secretary.

Elections will be held at the next council meeting on Monday. Candidates will then be given 90 seconds for campaign speeches.

Group A of the freshman council will meet tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey to hold elections.

Applications Due

Candidates for December graduation must file applications for graduation no later than Oct. 14, according to Miss Dorothy Muzzio, Registrar's office secretary. This applies to candidates for post-graduate credentials as well as candidates for bachelor's degrees.

Department heads' approval of majors (except for Education majors) and minors should be filed in the Registrar's office before applications for graduation are made.

Chief Justice Warren Swears Equality to Rich and Poor

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (UP) — Earl Warren, swearing to "do equal right to the poor and to the rich," became 14th Chief Justice of the United States today and then presided over the opening session of the Supreme court's 1953-54 term.

The former governor of California took the oath in the chambers of the Supreme Court in the presence of President and Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. Warren, and other dignitaries.

Warren, who was summoned to the nation's highest judicial post by Eisenhower, succeeds the late Chief Justice Fred Vinson who died of a heart attack Sept. 8.

Warren took the first oath—administered by Senior Associate Justice Hugo L. Black—in the presence of the courtroom. In that ceremony he swore to uphold the constitution.

The second oath, in which Warren swore to administer justice "without respect to persons and do equal right to the poor and to the rich," was administered in the courtroom by Court Clerk Harold B. Willey.

Need Housing?

Women students, still looking for room and board, living facilities, should report to the Activities office, according to Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, housing adviser.

Social Affairs Committee Tells Choice of Band

Jack Fina, celebrated orchestra leader known in this area for engagements in San Francisco and Berkeley, has been contracted by the Social Affairs committee to appear with his orchestra at the Coronation Ball here Oct. 30.

The ball, which will be held at the Civic auditorium, will feature the young maestro and his "ten talented fingers" at the piano during the evening, Vern Perry of the committee announced.

Through a score of records, motion pictures, personal appearances, and television, Fina has been recognized as one of the leading makers of modern-music history. His arrangements of the classics was one of the stinging blows to swing music when it was at the height of its popularity.

Of his most popular records sold, Tchaikovsky's "Concerto in B Flat Minor," Rachmaninoff's "Piano Concerto No. 2," and Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Flight of the Bumble Bee" (Bumble Boogie) were the biggest hits, selling more than 10,000,000 copies, according to a press release.

In his personal appearances on the west coast, Fina has played at the Mark Hopkins and St. Francis hotels in San Francisco, Claremont hotel in Berkeley, Waldorf Astoria in Los Angeles, and the Aragon Ballroom in Santa Monica.

He has eight motion pictures to his credit, four radio programs, and a host of records and albums. His "Dream Album," one of the most celebrated, has in it old favorites such as "Girl of My Dreams," "Dreams," and "I'll See You in My Dreams."

Fina gained fame for his modern interpretations of Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff while playing with the Freddy Martin orchestra. He left Martin shortly after this to organize his own orchestra, and since then has made a hit in his own right.

Fina and his orchestra feature smooth and sophisticated music for dancing and have been heard from coast to coast in leading theaters, hotels and night clubs, merits because of their popularity, often playing "repeat" engagements.

Deans Address New Faculty

New faculty members were introduced to the college's procedure and facilities yesterday at a New Faculty Orientation meeting at 3:30 p.m. in Room 24.

Dr. John T. Wahlquist, college president, discussed the policies of the college while Dr. James De Voss, executive dean, spoke on administrative organization of the college.

Dr. Fred Harclerod, dean of instruction, informed the group concerning faculty personnel information, and Dean of Students Joe H. West spoke on student personnel services.

The talks were followed by a campus tour of student personnel services facilities.

The program was presented by the Committee on Improvement of Instruction of which Dean Harclerod is chairman.

The next meeting of the New Faculty Orientation will be held Oct. 13 in Room L210 at 3:30 p.m., according to Dean Harclerod.

US Smashes World Air Speed Record

EL CENTRO, Calif. Oct. 5 (UP)

The United States today had a firm hold on the world's air speed record, a scorching 753.4 miles per hour turned in by Navy Lt. Cmdr. James Verdin in a delta-winged F4D Skyray jet fighter.

To eclipse the mark, competitors would have to fly at nearly 761 miles per hour, under international rules which require a new record to be one per cent better than the old.

With the desert temperature hitting 99 degrees, Verdin sped the F4D over the course four times. He was clocked at 746.075, 761.414, 746.503, and 759.499 miles per hour.

Lot Opens Today

A parking lot set aside specifically for the use of motorcyclists is expected to be ready for use today, according to John Amos, director of buildings and grounds.

The lot is behind the old Bible college on the corner of San Carlos and Fifth streets. Entrance to it is on San Carlos street.

The problem of motorcycle parking has been a troublesome one, Amos said. He encourages all motorcyclists to make use of the lot, thereby alleviating the parking problem for themselves and easing it considerably for automobile drivers.

A native Philadelphian, Dr. Leach holds degrees from Princeton and Harvard universities, Rollins college in Florida, and Upsala college in East Orange, N.J.

He traveled in Denmark for Harvard university (1908-10) and taught English at the university from 1910-12. Dr. Leach edited The Forum magazine from 1923-40 and was secretary (1912-21) and president (1926-47) of the American-Scandinavian Foundation in New York City, where he now resides.

A former curator of Scandinavian history and literature at Harvard (1921-31) he has been a professor of Scandinavian civilization since 1947 at the University of Kansas City.

In 1919 he obtained economic support for the annual exchange of 40 students between Scandinavia and the United States.

He has been a member of the New York State Judicial council since 1940, was president of the Poetry Society of America (1934-37) and belongs to clubs in the United States and London.

In 1947 he lectured at the Canadian Institute of International Affairs and holds several orders from Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Iceland.

Dr. Leach's books are "Scandinavia of the Scandinavians" (1915), "Anglo-Britain and Scandinavia" (1921), "Pageant of Old Scandinavia" (1946). He also is a contributor to many periodicals.

Thrust and Parry

No Third Degree!

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Why are SJS students letting themselves be buffeted, purged, persecuted, and ridiculed by three downtown theaters?

I, for one, would like to see the entire student body boycott those cinemas until they treat SJS students with a little more respect.

My grievances against them are these:

1. Inspecting our 50 cent tickets (purchased here) as if we were criminals.

2. Deliberately raising prices on so-called better movies, most of which are trash.

3. Consenting to a paltry, miserly 20 cent reduction in admission price, which means nothing when prices are continually raised.

4. Requiring identification, in addition to the cards, an unheard of policy in theaters anywhere.

The Towne theater in San Jose has continual fine entertainment and will be open soon. The Towne charges $1 admission, which is never raised, regardless of superior films — and student are admitted with student body cards for only 60 cents. The ASB cards, by the way, are never scrutinized, inspected and other identification is never required. In short, the Towne theater treats its patrons as adults, not like petty criminals.

I say that we should patronize the neighborhood theaters and the Towne theater. We should wait until the first-run movies hit the smaller houses before attending. Then, perhaps the three downtown theaters will fall in line and realize that people, even college students, have a right to be decently treated.

Journalism Department Head To Be in New Education Group

Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the department of journalism, will be a member of the American Council on Education for Journalism, following a reorganization of council members, according to a United Press report.

The reorganization resulted at a recent meeting when the council settled organizational differences arising from protests that the Association of Accredited Schools of Journalism had too strong a voice in determining schools to be accredited.

Before the reorganization, the association had six of the 12 council members, the other members coming from the news-gathering and publishing industry.

Now, the association will keep two members on the council, while two each will come from the Association for Education in Journalism and the American Society of Journalism School Administrators.

Dr. Bentel and Alfred Crowell, University of Maryland, will represent the latter group on the council. Representing the Association for Education in Journalism will be Gayle Waldrop, University of Colorado, and Deen Rafferty, University of New Mexico.

Groups May Use A-V Equipment

All student body organizations may now borrow equipment from the Audio-visual Service center by going to the Graduate Manager's office and paying a small fee, according to Dr. Richard Lewis, director of Audio-visual services.

Students using this equipment in their classes will be required to have their class instructor sign a slip which may be picked up in the Service center.

Spartans To Stress Defense This Week

Rice Displays Aerial Attack In Fresno Tilt

By BART WILLIAMS

Defense, defense, and more defense will be the by-word this week as the San Jose State Spartans prepare for Saturday night's game with Arizona State of Tempe. The game will be played at Spartan stadium.

The Raiders' lack of defensive strength is the main reason why Spartan fans look forward with little optimism to the games with California, Stanford, Oregon and College of Pacific.

Two weeks ago Coach Bob Bronzan's squad had to come from behind in the final minutes of the fourth quarter to edge Brigham Young. Last Saturday night the local gridgers saw a 27-7 lead in the third quarter diminish in the final quarter when the Bulldogs scored two touchdowns. Final count was 27-21.

Only encouraging note of the contest for the Spartans was the improved aerial game Quarterback Larry Rice engineered. The fast-improving signal-caller completed 10 out of 19 heaves for a total of 175 yards.

Bronzan felt that his charges were much improved against Fresno and played a better all-around ball game as compared with the Raiders' showing against Brigham Young.

State's head mentor corrected a statement made in yesterday's account of the game. He emphasized that Cal Poly has one of their strongest teams in years and that the coast squad's victory over the Bulldogs was well deserved.

Lady Luck is still riding with the San Joseans as the local gridgers have yet to suffer a major injury during the still-infane season. However, they have yet to meet a team that plays the rock-sock brand of football that California does, for instance.

Bronzan felt that the Spartans were lucky to come out on top of the Fresno fracas and believes that his footballers will have to be much improved to dump the highly touted Arizona eleven. Hence comes this writer's pessimism as Arizona definitely is not in the same class with the Golden Bears from Berkeley.

Arizona State of Tempe is the defending Border Conference champion. Last year the Spartans upset the champs by a 21-14 margin. State has played Arizona four times during the past 17 years and has won all four games. Interesting to note that the margin of victory has lessened each time, dropping from a 35-6 score in 1936 to last year's one touchdown victory.

The Tempe squad dropped their season opener to a powerful San Diego Navy team, 19-14. Last week they ran to a 14-0 decision over a good North Texas State eleven.

The Sun Devils may be expected to play their usual wide-open brand of football when they enter Spartan Stadium Saturday night. This is the kind of offense that spells trouble for a team lacking in defensive strength.

Military Armistice commission sources said a Red demand for the return of the plane flown into allied hands by a North Korean could be made either through the full commission or the joint secretariat.

SJS-Fresno Series Fate To Be Decided

A meeting to decide the fate of San Jose State college-Fresno State college football relations was to have been held last night in Fresno by the Fresno State college Athletic board.

The question of issues involved in the furtherance of relations between the schools was to have been the main topic to be decided, according to President John T. Wahlquist of San Jose State college.

President Wahlquist, along with Wilbur Hubbard and Glenn Hartman, both of the Men's Physical Education department, attended a meeting following the San Jose-Fresno game Saturday night at the home of Arnold E. Joyal, president of Fresno State college.

Certain inducements were offered the Bulldogs at that meeting in an effort on the part of San Jose State officials to continue the long-standing football series.

The Bulldogs, prior to Saturday night's contest, had been threatening to withdraw from further contests with either the Spartans or College of the Pacific.

Intramural Sports Meeting Is Today

A meeting of all organizations wishing to enter a team in the Intramural Football league will be held in the Student Union this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, according to Dave Pantoskey, AMS president.

Two leagues will be entered in the touch football competition, Pantoskey said. They will be an Independent and an Inter-Fraternity league.

Rules, playing times, dates of games and information for those desiring to enter teams will be discussed at the affair.

Intramural director will be Bill Perry of the Men's Physical Education staff. The intramural season will probably begin within two or three weeks on San Jose Recreation Department playgrounds, Pantoskey said.

Officials will be needed for the games and they will receive pay for their efforts. Anyone interested in officiating is asked to sign up in the Men's gym after 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

Wade Wilson will serve as manager of the Intramural program.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (UP)—Michigan State, boasting 26 consecutive grid wins and temporary first place in the Big Ten, moves out of conference competition this week to let Ohio State, the pre-season title favorite, get a chance to tie for the league lead.

The Spartans bounced Minnesota Saturday, 21 to 0, for their second straight Big Ten win as Le Roy Bolden turned in touchdown runs of 69, 10 and 11 yards.

Yanks Take Series In Thrilling Finish For New Record

By LEON PETERSEN
UP Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (UP)—The New York Yankees made baseball history yesterday when they won their fifth world series in a row, beating the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-3 on a ninth inning single by Bill Martin.

The little second basemen, whose hit was his 12th, tying a series record, rifled a single through the middle, scoring Hank Bauer, who had walked and moved to second base when Mickey Mantle beat out a scratch infield hit.

Centerfielder Duke Snider didn't even bother to throw to the plate after fielding the ball as Bauer raced around third and across the plate.

It was a thrilling end to a dramatic game on this dark, gloomy day before a crowd of 62,370 in damp, chilly Yankee Stadium.

The Dodgers, apparently beaten 3-1 as they came to bat in the ninth, came to life and tied the score off Allie Reynolds, Yankee relief pitcher, on a home run by Carl Furillo, the National league batting champion, after Duke Snider had walked.

But as it turned out, that only prolonged the game.

For Clem Labine, the third Dodger pitcher, started the Yankee ninth by walking Bauer on a 3-2 pitch. Yogi Berra then lined out to Furillo but Mickey Mantle beat out a slow grounder down the third base line for a scratch hit, Bauer going to second.

Labine fired a strike past Martin but the second basemen stepped into the next pitch and it was all over.

The victory went to Reynolds, giving him his seventh World Series triumph. That tied him with a former Yankee, Red Ruffing, for the most series victories ever turned in by a hurler.

And in this record breaking series the grizzled old manager of the Yankees, Casey Stengel, accomplished a feat unprecedented in the history of the game.

Two Instructors Join Home Ec Department; Tell Backgrounds

Two new instructors were welcomed to the Home Economics department staff this fall.

Dr. Clara Darby, instructor in foods and nutrients, and Miss Katherine Young, instructor in freshman and advanced food classes, are the new arrivals. A Purdue graduate, Dr. Darby taught at the University of the Philippines from 1939 until 1941. After five years in a Japanese prison camp, she continued teaching from 1946 through April of this year.

The university was moved to Quezon City in 1948 because the Manila campus was demolished during the war. According to Dr. Darby, interest in home economics is increasing in the Philippines and all students are required to take an elementary course in nutrition.

For two and a half years, Dr. Darby was dietitian at the Emmanuel hospital in Manila. She had four years previous experience at the Indiana university medical center in Indianapolis.

A member of the American Dietetic association, Dr. Darby is a charter member of the Philippine Association of Nutrition and is certified by the American Board of Nutrition. She is also affiliated with Omicron Nu, Kappa Delta Pi and Sigma Xi.

Miss Katherine Young, received her master's degree in home economics from the University of Texas in 1944. She has had five years high school and nine years college teaching experience. She taught at Stephen F. Austin State college and the University of Texas at Austin.

The new professor is affiliated with Phi Upsilon Omicron and Omicron Nu, Home Economics honor societies.

Personal Exams, Date Scheduled

Personnel tests will be given only once this quarter, according to Dr. Harrison F. Heath, college testing officer.

The tests are scheduled for Dec. 12. All students enrolled this quarter who have not yet taken the tests must take them on that date to be eligible for enrollment next quarter, Dr. Heath stated.

State Patrol Claims October Bad for Travel

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 5 (UP)—If you're the extremely cautious type, you'd best postpone any highway traveling planned for October weekends until some Thursday in January.

Results of a three-year survey by the California Highway Patrol released today showed more fatal accidents occur on Saturdays and Sundays than other days, and these accidents reach their seasonal peak in October.

October averages of 10 deaths in 8.8 fatal accidents each Saturday and 10.2 fatal accidents with 12 killed every Sunday represent yearly high totals.

Safest time of the year to venture forth on California's highways, the survey showed, is any Thursday in January. An average of 2.2 fatal accidents with 2.6 fatalities occurred on these days.

Frogmen Cross Dangerous Straits

LANDSKRONA, Sweden, Oct. 5 (UP)—Three Danish "frogmen" today held the distinction of being the first humans known to have made an underwater crossing of the 10-mile Oeresund straits between Denmark and Sweden.

Their efforts to "ride" a paravane all the way were frustrated by powerful underwater currents which caused the device to sweep from surface to sea bottom like a roller coaster.

Garbed in their green rubber suits, goggles and oxygen masks, they had to complete their journey yesterday weighted down with lead while being towed through the icy water by a motorboat.

The paravane is a torpedo-shaped device towed underwater by a surface vessel. It was developed during the war as a device to cut cables holding enemy mines beneath the sea.

The Danes were Joern Forchammer, chief of the Lyngby-Taarbæk Fire brigade, and engineers Jan Glaffey and Jan Uhre.

Tuesday, there will be Orchestras, held at 4:30 p.m. The manager is Margaret Feagin. Dr. Hildegard Spreen will act as adviser. On Wednesday hockey will be played at 4:10 p.m., the manager being Sandy Waller and the adviser Miss Margaretta Fristoe.

The WAA council meetings will be held at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday. The Swim club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Ann Younger is the manager, and Dr. Elizabeth Prange will be the adviser.

WAA offers the above activities to all women on campus and invites all who are interested to join the organization.
